SURPRISING.
The leader of an orchestra
Exclaimed: "Why bless my soul!
I've not today been asked to play
That 'Oceana Roll.'"
—Birmingham Age-Herald.

We'd like to place a bet, to-wit:
One shay silver dime
That "Everybody's Doin' It"
Is taking up the time.
—Youngtown Telegram.

And when the players take a rest
It will not be for long.
For then some lowbrow will request
To hear "The Honn' Dawg Song"
—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Ah, there they start to play it now;
It seems a howling din;
They play it night and day, I vow,
That "Ragtime Violin."
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

And then some homely-looking dame
Some ancient, raggy moll,
Howls this bit with a foolish name—
"Oh, You Beautiful Doll."
—Louisville Times.

We hear a lot of these, 'tis true,
But you must your time abide,
And when you hear the music played
Just listen for the "Gaby Glide."

Yesterday H. B. Rosser qualified as administrator of Lawson B. Suit, with John L. Chamberlain surety on bond.

LET UNCLE SAM GIVE YOU THE FACTS

Government reports show the steady output of coal during the last few years has made the dealers push for wider markets. We are going to get more trade—your trade—by giving you a greater value for your money. You will never get out of debt unless you buy wisely.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Special Days

Persons unable to register on the regular day may do so on either, Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday by calling at the office of County Clerk J. J. Owens.

This has reference to voters who were absent from the city or unable to reach the polls because of illness on the regular day.

Women are given the same privilege on either of the days named.

MISSION APPEAL

Birthday Party October 29th—Larger Quarters Demanded

The Ladies' Board of the "City Mission" have issued invitations for their annual "Birthday Party" to take place at the City Mission Rooms on Tuesday afternoon, October 29th, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The demands on the City Mission have been such, that the ladies have been compelled to arrange for larger quarters. This requires more money and the same expenditure has been resorted to that was so successful last year. It is earnestly hoped the public will respond most liberally to this appeal.

The intention has been to invite everyone supposed to be interested in this work. But every body will be welcome whether they have received cards or not.

NARROW ESCAPE

Young Man Saved Himself
From a Horrible Death
With Pick Handle

Loetzer Wallingford of the East End met with a very painful accident last night about 7:30 o'clock.

He was working in his father's mill on Carmel street, and when passing the main shaft his overalls were caught by a bolt on the collar of the shaft. By main strength and presence of mind he was able to run a pick handle through one of the pulleys, thereby stopping the revolving shaft.

He was dreadfully bruised, however. Dr. Taylor was called and found that no bones were broken.

It is hoped that he is not seriously hurt and that he will soon be able to get out.

Great Test of Endurance and Strength

George L. Hess, aged 27, weight 465 pounds, of Salisbury, N. C., yesterday in the presence of hundreds of witnesses performed an athletic feat of human strength and endurance on the Market street Esplanade that surpassed any exhibition of the kind ever performed in this city.

What others claiming supernatural power have performed on stages of theaters behind screens and curtains, Hess did right before your eyes; that is free himself by muscular movements and main strength after being securely tied with one hundred feet of strong rope.

Messrs. B. F. Paul and J. N. Henderson of Dexter and Henry Gallenstein of this city, did the tying and that they did a good job not one of the hundreds who saw the man after being bound will gainsay. It is more than likely that not one among the number present thought for an instant that he would succeed in freeing himself, bound as he was. After wriggling, twisting, squirming and bringing every muscle into action, and after two hours and five minutes of wonderful human endurance, he freed himself, much to the amazement of his numerous onlookers. He realized about $7 for his performance. He further proposed for the sum of $10 to permit any automobile in the city to pass over his neck, breast or any part of his body.

Hess is about 5 feet 8 inches tall and rather spare in build, but is all sinew and muscle and of extraordinary strength. He is not a fraud, but the real goods and does what

The County Teachers will hold an association at Orangeburg tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Christian Church. An extra program has been prepared.

Fruit growing and cattle raising will be discussed by professors from the State University. A practical demonstration of milk testing will be given by our Rectorville Creamery manager, Mr. Walter Thomas. Miss Nell E. Williams of Mayslick will discuss primary work, and Miss Lida E. Gardner, County Superintendent of Schools of Nicholas County, will tell of the work accomplished through the School Improvement League in that county.

The ladies of the district will serve dinner for the small sum of 25 cents, for the benefit of the school, this being the only expenditure of the day.

Everybody will be made welcome, as we are holding this in the interest of the children of Mason county.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN.
FOR CONGRESS,
HON. HARRY BAILEY.
FOR APPELLATE JUDGE,
JUDGE A. J. KIRK.

Hiram Johnson has been campaigning in Bill Flinn's auto. This illustrates the unity of real Progressives.—Boston Advertiser.

The receipts of Internal revenue are $5,000,000 greater so far this fiscal year than they were for the same period in the last fiscal year," says Commissioner Cbabbell.

SOME THINGS LITTLE WILLIE FORGOT.

Congressman Fields addressed a good audience at Ewing Thursday night that was composed largely of women, children, Republicans and Democratic candidates from Flemingsburg and the eastern end of the county. He advanced nothing new but followed the old rut. Pensions and the Tariff were dilated upon, but he failed to convince the pensioners present that they were under specific obligations to the Democratic party. He saved the old wool hat that his party has used for years as an illustration, and that thirteen dollar suit upon which he said there was an eight dollar duty. He failed to say that the fellow who bought the suit had $20 left with which he bought an overcoat. He positively forgot to state that under the present tariff laws and a Republican administration we have entered an era of progress and prosperity unprecedented in the history of our republic.—Silver Lawn, Fleming county, cor Gazette.

THEY ARE NOT TAXED AT ALL.

The American Economist, speaking of the Protected industries of the States, says:

Not many years ago we paid Great Britain $30,000,000 in a single year for tin plate. Now we do not import hardly $1,000,000 worth, and that is duty free for export purposes, but we produce over $50,000,000 worth! And yet Professor Wilson says that the Protected industries grow weaker!

What, then, is the meaning of it all? How comes the American worker to be able to afford all the things he buys, if they be taxed so heavily? The answer is simple: He earns good wages and the articles he really uses are not taxed at all. The American Tariff gives American work to the American workers. The American workingman's tools, his bowler hat, his shoes; the furniture in his home; his wife's hat, dress, umbrella, etc.—all the articles which Free-Trade leaflets tell us are taxed anything from 15 per cent. upward—are made in the United States and are not taxed at all. The Free-Trade leaflets should say that import duties are imposed on these articles if sent to the United States from Great Britain, from Germany, and from other foreign countries, but the American workman buys home-made goods no tax and on the home-made goods no tax.

the best Progressive on record. He paid more for the title than Perkins or Munsey or "Bill" Flinn of Pittsburgh.—New York World.

A New York man writing to the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune says of the issues of the present campaign:

"Any one, if he inquires, will find, as I did, that the smaller business men dread a tariff change even more than the large business men. I found that the feeling had grown amazingly that it was a great mistake to change—that what was wanted was to have the country left alone; that even if a tariff bill was not passed that would be radical, a mere discussion of a change would paralyze business and hurt them more than others.

NOTHING LIKE THIS UNDER DEMOCRATIC RULE

Bricklayers Wanted—Union Central Building, Wages 70c Per Hour; Must Be First-Class Men: Thompson-Starrett Co.

This is the advertisement which appeared in yesterday's Commercial Tribune. Ever see such an advertisement during years when the Democracy is in power?

In Austria-Hungary bricklayers are paid $1 to $1.20 a day, in Germany they are paid 13 cents an hour; in England 20 cents. But in Cincinnati they get 70 cents an hour.

The nation is entering upon its greatest era of prosperity if conditions remain unchanged. The election of Wilson means an overthrow of existing conditions, to be followed by the inevitable panic and depression. It means a return to those days of a former Wilson bill, when bricklayers and other trade workers were glad to take a job at any price if they could get the money to feed their families.

The safe road for the man who wants to keep prosperity is broad and plain. There is no occasion for any man to go astray.

If you travel over the Wilson road it is rutty and bumpy and you will get mired. It has not been fixed up since it was abandoned for public use twenty years ago, and has been getting worse every year.

The Roosevelt road is new and untried, but it don't lead anywhere. You will wind up against a stonewall at the end and have to retrace your steps. It is just a plain waste of time to travel over it.

But the Taft road is the great safe pike for every man to take. It leads us to prosperity and enables us to do things that ought to be done. True, there may be a couple of bad spots in the road, but they will be repaired as soon as the steam roller can get busy.

So there are really only two roads for the man of today to follow—the Wilson road and the Taft road, and between those there can be no hesitancy. The nation bumped the bumps once too often on the Wilson road before to be anxious to take another trip over it.

The Wilson road is full of danger to the American people. They will get mired in the sloughs of panic and hard times, just as they did before.

It is Taft and the safe road; or, Wilson and the bumps.

With bricklayers in demand at 70 cents an hour, wage-earners and trade workers should keep to the safe road.—Commercial Tribune.

ALMOST DISCOURAGED.

Ladies' Home Journal.

A Humboldt rancher returned from a year's trip through the East to find that an old-time neighbor of his, a man noted for his perfect patience, had been having a siege of bad luck. Upon hearing the news he immediately sought out the neighbor to console with him. "Well, John," he said, after greetings had been exchanged, "I hear you lost all of your timber, through the forest fire."

The other man nodded.

"And they say that the river cut off your best bottom land; that your hogs all died of cholera; that your wife and children have been sick, and that they have now foreclosed the mortgage on your other place."

"John nodded again. "Yes, it's all true," he said, looking about him at what had once been his farm, "all true. Why, sometimes I get discouraged."

THE THREE OFFERS

A little parable illustrated:
"What's your offer, Theodore?"
"I'll give you the biggest noise you ever heard."

"And, Woodrow, what have you to offer?"

"Something very wonderful, but I'm keeping it dark."
"Now, William, what is your offer?"
"I'll let you keep what you have got, Uncle Sam."

—From New York Herald.

WILSON'S FRIEND IN STATE SENATE

New Jersey Governor Failed to Act in Fitzherbert Case.

DID NOT END THE DISGRACE

Executive's "One Track Mind" Got on a Crooked Curve—Not Only His Own State, but the Entire United States, is Entitled to an Explanation—One Was Promised Six Months Ago.

Why has Woodrow Wilson, Governor of New Jersey and candidate of the Democratic party for President of the United States, been supine, passive and silent for more than six months in face of a black legislative scandal as ever beclouded the fair fame of a sovereign State? "Strike" bills are unhappily not novelties in State capitals and if public impressions are in accord with facts New Jersey has been a prolific field for that sort of harvest. The "Black Horse cavalry" of Tweed's time were not more ravenous, according to report, than some of their latter-day imitators west of the Hudson, and as many large corporations have their headquarters or plants, or both, in New Jersey it is not difficult for the striker to find an "easy mark" for his "stand and deliver."

Hardly necessary is it to say that the victims, as a rule usually deem it cheaper to hand over than to put up a fight, and it might be supposed, therefore, that a monopolist of official righteousness, such as Woodrow Wilson professes to be, would seize an opportunity not merely offered but thrusting "self" upon him, for making an example of the criminals.

Herein Woodrow Wilson has utterly failed to measure up to the standard of a conscientious dare-to-do-right executive. Six months and more have passed since the Senate of New Jersey, by a vote of 11 to 9, found Senator Richard Fitzherbert "guilty of an act inconsistent with the trust and duty of a senator in that he had negotiated for the payment of the sum of $5,000 by the Commercial Acetylene Company of New York as a consideration for the withdrawal by the said senator of Senate bills 79 and 110 thereto introduced by him."

On March 12, the day before the vote convicting Fitzherbert, Governor Wilson said that he was "looking into the testimony," and on March 13 he had a conference with the Democratic senators, and said that he would issue a statement. No statement was then or has since been forthcoming, although, to quote from the "State Gazette" of Trenton, "from the time that he first appeared in the political arena as candidate for the office of governor Woodrow Wilson's greatest effort has been to impress the people of this and other States with the idea that he is the head and front of the Democratic party and the adviser and guide of the people."

On March 15, 1912, two days after Fitzherbert's conviction Mr. Oscar F. Ostby in behalf of the Commercial Acetylene Company, appealed to Governor Wilson to take some action that would put an end to the public scandal and the menace to legitimate business involved in the presence of a man with Fitzherbert's proved record in the Senate of New Jersey. Governor Wilson replied under date of March 20: "I quite agree with what you say as to the extreme seriousness of the Fitzherbert incident. I shall certainly try by every means within my power to see that no matter of this kind is covered or condoned."

And that more than six months ago, was the last of it, so far as Wilson is concerned. The promised statement by Wilson has never been made. Fitzherbert has not resigned or offered to resign, nor has any suggestion been made that Wilson has asked him to. The conclusion is obvious that Woodrow Wilson is a reformer only in spots, and that his one-track mind, as he calls it himself, is as curved as the Horseshoe Bend when in making advantage is to be gained in making the curve. Fitzherbert has been a sad support of Wilson in his efforts for the uplift of New Jersey, and like the holdup of the not permitted to mar their oneness of moral and political aims. It is possible—nay, probable—that the public at large may take a different view of executive obligations, and may conclude that a governor with such a contracted sense of official duty is unfitted for the far more important office of President of the United States.

CONTENTMENT—NOT APATHY

But All Should Remember That Vigilance Is the Price of Prosperity. It's contentment; not apathy. The masses of the people are satisfied. The dissatisfied are a number, large in the aggregate, but not large in proportion to the total population, who are anxious for a political eruption, in the hope of coming out on top, or higher up than they are now. The malcontents are mostly of the non-productive variety. They include a lot of young fellows who hate hard work and think that politics owes them a living, and they don't much care what happens provided they land the sinecure they are after. Like Colonel Sellers, they are for "the old flag and an appropriation."

"The shallows murmur while the deeps are dumb." The people are too busy earning money and buying and selling the good things of life to be hunting trouble which doesn't trouble them.

Satisfied as the great majority doubtless are with the administration of President Taft, his splendid record of restored confidence, of flourishing industries, of unprecedented growth of commerce at home and with foreign nations, it is not to be forgotten that vigilance is the price of prosperity as well as of liberty, and that the only way to keep the jealous drones from breaking up the busy hive is to pile up an emphatic vote for the Republican candidates and the policies they represent and thereby assure not only a continuance of the prosperity we now enjoy, but even greater prosperity in the approaching future.

Even a Free Trade Paper Sees the Point!

(New York Evening Post, Oct. 16.) Any indication that campaign appeals to the people are based on the assumption of a high degree of intelligence in the electorate must be welcome to patriotic citizens, irrespective of party preference. It is for this reason that we have taken such pleasure in observing that one of the great electric signs—about sixty feet high and fifty feet wide—blashed out from the advertising tower at Broadway and Forty-third street, reads as follows:

"Remember the panic of 1893. Remember the panic of 1907. No panic under Taft. Better be safe than sorry."

Here we have no rhetoric, no bombast, no appeal to prejudice or passion. The voter is simply confronted with the incontrovertible fact that during the whole three years and six months of Mr. Taft's presidency there has been no financial panic. He is left to do his own thinking. Could anything show a more sublime confidence in the intelligence of the public? The Taft managers know that a word to the wise is sufficient. The voter will say to himself: "Why has there been no panic since 1907? Is it not customary for panics to follow each other in rapid succession? Would there not have been another panic in 1910 if Roosevelt had been President, and probably one regularly every year if the terrible Democrats had been in power? The man that saved us from these calamities is surely entitled to my vote." If Taft is not elected after this what encouragement will there be for the use of sound arguments in a political campaign?

MASTER Commissioner's Sale

MASON CIRCUIT COURT.
The Neptune Fire Engine and Hose Co. No. 2, of Maysville, Ky., etc., Plaintiffs, vs. The City of Maysville, Defendant.
Judgment and Order of Sale.
In obedience to a judgment and order of sale in the above styled action, I will, as Master Commissioner, on

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26,

1912, at 2 o'clock p. m., proceed, on the premises, on East Third Street, near Lexington Street, in the City of Maysville, Kentucky, to sell, at public outcry, and to the highest and best bidder, that certain parcel of real estate, known as the Neptune Hall.

Said property is described and bounded as follows, to wit: A certain lot of ground, having a two-story brick building thereon, situated on the North side of East Third Street, in the City of Maysville, Kentucky, and bounded on the East by a lot of ground formerly owned by Mason Sewell, and on the West side by the lot of ground owned by the Episcopal Church, and upon which said Church edifice now stands.

Said lot fronts 30 feet and 4 inches, more or less, on Third street, and runs back the same width with the Western boundary of said Sewell property, and runs with the Eastern boundary of said Episcopal Church, 114 feet to the center of a twelve foot alley, be the same depth, more or less; together with all and singular appurtenances and privileges thereto belonging.

Said property is the same conveyed to the Neptune Fire Engine and Hose Company No. 2 of Maysville, Kentucky, by Deed Book 66, page 47, dated March 18th, 1908, by deed recorded in Deed Book 66, page 497, Mason County Court Clerk's office, but from which said Neptune Fire Engine and Hose Company No. 2 subsequently conveyed a strip of ground to a certain lot, more or less, on East Third Street, in the City of Maysville, Kentucky, and upon which said Church edifice now stands.

TERMS OF SALE—Said sale will be made upon a credit of six (6) months, in payments of equal amounts. The purchaser will be required to execute bonds for the purchase price, with approved personal security, payable to me as Master Commissioner, and bearing six (6) per cent. interest thereon from day of sale. A lien will also be retained upon the property sold to secure the payment of the purchase price.

ANAEMIC PEOPLE

Need More Iron in the Blood

If you are anemic, you need more iron in your blood, and the tell-tale symptoms are a pale face—colorless lips, ashen finger nails, poor circulation, and short breath, and more serious diseases are easily contracted when in this condition.

What Vinol did for Mrs. G. S. Mannel of San Antonio, Texas, it will do for every anemic run-down person. She says: "I was weak and nervous and had general debility for about three years. My health was badly run down and my complexion became sallow and badly affected with pimples. While in this weakened condition I contracted pleurisy, which made it very hard for me. I am happy to say that Vinol has restored me to health again, and I have no cough or soreness of the lungs at all."

We ask every anemic or run-down, weak person in this vicinity to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not do all we claim. John C. Pecor, Druggist, Maysville, Ky.

LABOR IS AGAINST WILSON

Says Debs, Who Predicts Disintegration of Democratic Party

WASHINGTON, October 23—Eugene V. Debs, the Socialist candidate for President, has covered practically the entire United States on his stump tour, and has had exceptional opportunities for sizing up the political situation.

He said in an interview here today that Governor Wilson will not get the labor vote in the country, and predicts an immense gain in the Socialist vote. "We are frequently asked," he said, "if the progressive movement will reduce the Socialist vote to any considerable extent. Doubtless it will in that it will take from us many who have more or less pronounced socialistic tendencies, but they are not far enough advanced to avow themselves of the Socialist party. But this does not mean that the Progressive party will get any socialistic votes."

"The appeal of Woodrow Wilson in behalf of the Democratic party will fall upon deaf ears so far as the intelligent workers of the country are concerned. They are pretty familiar with the record the Democratic party has made whenever it has been in power, so far as the working class is concerned."

"Should the Democratic party succeed to power, it will in all likelihood be that party's last appearance in power, for as certainly as that day comes it will mark its wide open rupture and disintegration. The split that has taken place in the Republican party before the election will be duplicated on a more pronounced scale after the election by the Democratic party."

No. 16—CARE OF THE ESTATE

The Reasons have already been set forth why this Company should be selected to care for estates. A number of the capacities in which it does so are the following.

As executor it files the Will, pays the debts and all legacies, files detailed accountings, and seeks discharge when its work is complete to the satisfaction of the Court.

As Guardian its duties are similar to those of a Trustee; and a final accounting is rendered when the beneficiaries become of age.

Lipton's Motto

"There is one motto," says Sir Thomas Lipton in the September Strand, "which I would like to impress upon every young man in business—'There is no fun like work.' I always keep this motto before me. Of course, after a man has won the game he set out to win, after he has succeeded in life, he can do what he likes. But while he is working, work ought to be all his life. It ought to be work and play, too. I have often worked eighteen hours a day, and enjoyed every minute. If a man is constantly looking at the clock the spirit of success which is hovering over that man will soon take wing and fly away. There is no fun like work."

Are You Subject to Constipation?

Here is a Simple Way of Correcting It Instantly Before it Becomes Chronic

Very few people go through life without some time or other being troubled with constipation. Thousands injure themselves by the use of strong narcotics, salt waters, pills and similar things. They have temporary relief in some cases, it is true, but the good effect is soon lost, and the more one takes of them the less effective they become.

A physic or purgative is seldom necessary, and much better or more permanent results can be obtained by using a scientific remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It does not hide behind the name of a fruit or vegetable, but is what it is represented to be, a mild laxative medicine. It is so mild that thousands of mothers give it to tiny infants, and yet it is so compounded, and contains such definite ingredients that it will have equally good effect when used by a person suffering from the worst chronic constipation. In fact, among the greatest endorers of Syrup Pepsin are elderly people who have suffered for years and found nothing to benefit them until they took Syrup Pepsin.

It is a fact that millions of families have Syrup Pepsin constantly in the house, homes like those of Mr. G. M. O'Neal, Hamilton, O., and Mrs. M. Huppert, 123 Jewell St., Brooklyn, N. Y. The special value of this great laxative tonic is that it is suited to the needs of every member of the family. It is pleasant-tasting, mild and non-gripping. Unlike harsh physics it works gradually and in a very brief time the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to do their work naturally again, when all medicines can be dispensed with.

MR. G. M. O'NEAL

You can obtain a bottle at any drugstore for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is usually bought by families who already know its value.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a drugstore, send your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 412 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

THE BUSINESS MEN OF TODAY

are fully aware of the value of good dressing as a business asset. They regard well made, perfect fitting attire as much of an essential as the attractive qualities of a well kept store or office. The only question is who is the tailor who can make them the most satisfactory garments? There can be no question of doubt if you place your order with us. Remember this is the only store in this section where you can buy Ed. V. Price's made to measure clothes. See the new browns we are showing for $18 to $22, they are repeaters. WASHINGTON SCORES JOHNSON

Thousands Cheer as Negro Leader Repudiates Champion For His Recent Exploits

DETROIT, Mich.—Twenty-five hundred Detroit Y. M. C. A. members and their friends rose to their feet Sunday afternoon and simultaneously applauded Proctor T. Washington when he declared that pugilist "Jack" Johnson should be repudiated by all right thinking Negroes in view of his recent Chicago exploits. "It is unfortunate," he said, "that a man with money should use it in a way to injure his own people with those who are seeking to uplift the race and improve its conditions. Chicago is now witnessing a good example of the result of educating a man to make money without due attention having been given his mental and spiritual development. In misrepresenting the colored people of the country this man is harming himself if the least. I wish to say emphatically that his actions do not meet with my personal approval, and I am sure they do not meet with the approval of the colored race."

"WHAT IS A GOOD SCHOOL?"

Kentucky Department of Education Trying to Standardize Rural Schools Through Agency of County Supervisors

Efforts are being made by the Department of Education to standardize the rural schools through the agency of county supervisors. A system of grading has been devised, based on the course of study, school management, method, attendance, equipment and environment. State Supervisor J. T. Coates is sending out the following communication to school men all over the State in order to get a symposium of ideas on the development of rural schools: "The Department of Education of Kentucky is trying to work out standards for the rural schools. It is trying to discover the idea toward which effort should be directed. It is seeking for a definite working answer to the question, 'What is a good school?' It is trying to make concrete the term; 'An efficient school as a guide to teachers, supervising council and people.' We believe that in multitude of council there is wisdom. As one of the leaders of educational thought, we are appealing to you for answers to the following questions:

"What is the real work of the rural school?" "What is your idea of a proper environment as to health, comfort and beauty? (A pen picture will be appreciated.)

"Should agriculture or domestic science, or both, be taught in the rural schools below the High School? How far may they be attempted?"

"What is an ideal equipment?" "Discuss the management of pupils in school and on the playground, and in passing from one to another."

"How manage such things as the water supply, lunch baskets, sweeping, fires, and those other factors that make up the routine of the school?"

"Please answer these questions with a school of only one teacher in mind. Complete details will be high appreciated."

"If you are able to reach any conclusions from a study of the answers to these questions which are going out to hundreds of you will receive them."

FITZGERALD
SUREY.

The "Forty-two" Club was delightfully entertained last afternoon by Mrs. W. E. Stallcup of Forest avenue. The house was decorated with beautiful cut flowers, the color scheme of pink and green being tastefully carried out. After spending several hours in playing "Forty-two," a delicious luncheon was served. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mrs. R. B. Owens entertained the Six hard Euchre Club Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Phillips of St. Louis. It was the initial entertainment of the club and the attractive home looked very charming in its autumn decorations of rosy dahlias and branches of red buds and asparagus. Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Hail Stroe were the fortunate winners of the party prizes. A delicious luncheon was served and the friends of Mrs. Phillips were delighted with the opportunity to welcome back to old Kentucky one of her sweetest and most representative daughters.

In the evening Miss Nanale Wood entertained the club in honor of Mrs. Phillips. Five Hundred was the game and the prize winners this time were Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Everett and Mrs. Malthy. Delightful refreshments were served and the guests departed feeling that with two such charming entertainments in one day, Maysville was distinctly on the social map.

"THE HAIRS OF YOUR HEAD ARE NUMBERED"

There is a great deal of truth in the old saying: "The hairs of your head are numbered." Roots die, vitality gives out. The hair begins to turn grey.

This is particularly unfortunate as we are all living in an age when to LOOK young means to fill the YOUNG and IMPORTANT positions. Old fogies go to the background. If you should begin to chalk down every day of your life, the exact number of hairs that turn grey, you would be surprised and soon learn that "The Grey Hairs of Premature Old Age" come on very quickly, if you neglect them.

Investigating Recent Dover Fire

Deputy State Fire Marshal Helm and Paule were at Dover yesterday investigating the recent fire there in which the two buildings occupied by the Woodward and Elliott stores were entirely destroyed, involving a loss of $16,500.

While Inspector Helm, who was in Maysville yesterday afternoon, would not talk about his findings, we are led to believe that the only definite theory regarding the origin of the fire is that it was accidentally set on fire by persons who were bent on robbing the stores.

IN TAFT COLUMN Greenup County Expected to Give the President Good Lead

GREENUP, KY., October 24th.—During the past month the sentiment in Greenup county has changed in favor of President Taft, and it is freely predicted that he will win here by a good majority.

Roosevelt carried the county by a narrow margin in the primaries. It is now asserted that the Bull Moose ticket will not poll more than 50 votes in Greenup.

Most of those who led the fight here for Roosevelt in the primaries are now enthusiastically supporting Taft.

The county will give its usual Republican majority for President Taft and Hon. Harry Bailey of Cynthia, the Republican candidate for Congress in this Congressional District.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than in other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. PHYSICIAN! OPTICIAN!

Your physician can treat successfully all ordinary eye diseases. If an operation is necessary he will refer you to a REAL specialist in eye surgery. When glasses are necessary he will advise you to see the skilled optician, one who knows glasses from A to Z. He will tell you to go to Simpson because he knows that the man who specializes is the one to consult about his specialty.
